

Provide the guidance of a primary care physician for your employees.

The UnitedHealthcare Select HMO plan has its own national network that recommends the selection of a primary care physician (PCP) to help simplify and coordinate care.

By actively promoting quality care and guiding employees to use health care more efficiently, a PCP can help save time and money. A PCP will provide routine care, such as annual well visits and preventive care, treatment for minor injuries and short-term illnesses. They can also coordinate care to other network physicians and specialists. Network preventive care is covered 100%.

Choosing a PCP to coordinate overall care.

Upon enrollment in a Select HMO plan, your employees and their covered family members can select a PCP from the Select network. Each family member can choose a different PCP to manage their health care needs. If they do not choose a PCP, one will be assigned. PCPs can be general practitioners, family practitioners, internists or pediatricians who practice near where the employee lives.

Benefit levels:

- Network benefits.
- No out-of-network coverage, except for emergency care.

PCPs provide regular and routine care and coordinate care by network physicians and specialists.

- Referrals are not required for other network physicians or specialists.

Referrals can help employees maximize their benefits.

Since the PCP will be the employee's first and foremost source of care, they can best refer the employee to other network physicians or specialists when additional care is needed. If an employee chooses to see an out-of-network provider, they will be responsible for the entire cost. An electronic referral is also not required for Virtual Visits or for services from a network OB/GYN, from network behavioral health and substance use disorder clinicians, or for routine refractive exams. Certain inpatient and outpatient procedures require that the network physician obtain prior authorization before the procedures are performed.
