IRA to HSA transfer	Consumers are able to make a one-time, tax-free trustee-to-trustee transfer of IRA funds into an HSA. The individual must remain enrolled in high-deductible health plan and eligible for an HSA for a 13-month test period after the fund transfer. The funds transferred from the IRA apply to the annual HSA maximum contribution limit. The contribution must be made directly by the IRA trustee. Comparable contributions	Employers may under certain conditions be eligible to make higher contributions for "non-highly compensated employees" without a cafeteria plan. Employer contributions to an HSA based on completion of wellness activities would still require funding through a cafeteria plan. The UnitedHealthcare plan with Health Savings Account (HSA) is a high deductible health plan (HDHP) that is designed to comply with IRS requirements so eligible enrollees may open a Health Savings Account (HSA) with a bank of their choice or through Optum Bank, Member of FDIC. The HSA refers only and specifically to the Health Savings Account that is provided in conjunction with a particular bank, such as Optum Bank, and not to the associated HDHP. Insurance coverage provided by or through UnitedHealthcare Insurance Company or its affiliates. Administrative services provided by UnitedHealthcare Services, Inc. or their affiliates.

Health savings accounts (HSAs) are individual accounts offered by Optum Bank, Member FDIC, and are subject to eligibility and restrictions, including but not limited to restrictions on distributions for qualified medical expenses set forth in section 213(d) of the Internal Revenue Code. This communication is not intended as legal or tax advice. Please contact a competent legal or tax professional for personal advice on eligibility, tax treatment, and restrictions. Federal and state laws and regulations are subject to change.
