

Save on health coverage with this new benefit for Southern Arizona Chamber of Commerce Association members.

With recent changes in federal health insurance regulations, you may be able to save on health coverage by putting the buying power of an association health plan, or AHP, to work for your small business. With an AHP, you can join with other southern Arizona small businesses to get benefits typically enjoyed by larger companies — including lower premiums, reduced administrative costs and more coverage options to better meet the needs of your employees. As a member of Southern Arizona Chamber of Commerce Association, you're eligible to join our AHP and begin realizing these benefits today.

When it comes to association health plans, we are working to bring you more.

Southern Arizona Chamber of Commerce Association is collaborating with UnitedHealthcare to offer you one of the country's leading association health plan programs. UnitedHealthcare serves more than 28 million Americans, including more than 1 million employees in association groups across the country.
